

Professor Lai Chi Kong

A Short Biography

Lai Chi Kong received his PhD in the University of California, Davis. He is now Reader in Modern Chinese History in the School of History, Philosophy, Religion and Classics in the University of Queensland. He is also the Director of Asian Business History Centre; Associate Editor of Chinese Business History; Honorary Professor in Shanghai Academy of Social Sciences; Visiting Professor of The Chinese University of Hong Kong; Member of International Advisory Board in the Centre for the Study of the Chinese Southern Diaspora, ANU. Dr Lai's specializes on the study of Chinese Social and Business History (1500-2000) but also teaches wide-ranging courses such as Modern China; Contemporary China; Body, Fashion and Consumption in History; Crime and Punishment; Sources and Methodology of Modern Chinese History, etc.